Class of 1950---A GREAT move, Bishop High School's own home page. Now we can start adding those e-mail addresses to our computer database, so lets not drag our feet, get logged in. On July26 of 1997, classes from years 46 through 53 gathered at the B Bar B Ranch Inn. A total of 73, and 47 of us being alumni. What great time that was! The good Lord willen and if y2k doesn't get us, we are planning on the next one some where around March or October of 2000. Let me hear from you. Thanks again Marvin for the page.----Floyd

I also graduated from Lee College/Baytown, Laredo Junior College/Laredo, and Texas A&I/Kingsville. I spent many years in nursing administration, but now work in ICU/CCU. I've been married to the world's sweetest man for 20 years ("JR", a BHS grad! My elder daughter, Kim (BHS grad), lives in Naperville, IL and is married to a United Airways pilot (BHS grad)...they have 2 daughters ages 7 and 5. Yes, that makes me a granny! They call me "Nana" and I love it! My younger daughter, Sandra just graduated from BHS this year...we'll have to throw rocks at her to ever get her to leave home! My sisters Sherry and Susie [both valedictorians of their respective classes at BHS] are both living in the Houston area and my brother John, who almost graduated before we moved to Houston, now practices medicine in the Dallas area. Above all, I remember the friendly people and excellent teachers, especially Mrs. Olga Paul, 12th grade English teacher. Does anyone remember, "Here's to our Classes, here's to our lasses, etc.?" Class of 1975. It's great to be from Bishop. But then who would'nt want to be FROM Bishop. No seriously, it is a great place to grow up. Since leaving there I have traveled all around the world with my wife & four daughters and we aint never saw no place like it. Time for a reunion CLASS?

This was a great idea! Thanks to Marvin for his hard work. Graduate of 1976. Married to Donnie Skrobarczyk with two kids, junior in college, and one in 7th grade. Have wonderful memories of Bishop High. Would love to chat with past classmates, especially ones I have lost touch with. We had a great 20-YEAR reunion, so lets get on the ball before we get too old! Drop me a line! FOREVER A BADGER!

Everything has been going very well. I am currently working in New Jersey but come January 2000, I will be transferring to our Danbury, CT office. Kristen and I are doing well and are expecting our first child in a few months. I plan to make a trip to Bishop this coming summer. If anyone will be around, please let me know. It will be great to see the old high school gang!

I hope everyone has a great holiday!

Graduated/Departed: 1995. Remember the band that played the ONLY NON-WORTHLESS "Project Graduation"? I was the drummer in that ensemble cast of spirited rogues. We made the girls scream for us, the guys wish they could trade in their Bugle Boy polos and Nike socks for our second-hand clothing and charismatic wit. No, I'm not saying we were Gods. Just knew that some of us were going to make it out of that useless town and dead-end life. I'm presently finishing up the remnants of a filmmaking degree, but in the meantime, I'm a jungle/drum n' bass dj and music director at a college radio station. . . No, friends, it's not 'bout the Benjies, it's all about the beats, because when the music hits, you feel no pain. Much respect to the '95 crew, especially Gary "Mixmaster" Eulenfeld; A "To-the-Mofo" G; Coleman; Williamson; Cain "Can't Take No" Canamore. . . all those I left out, damn, I'm only human. Love & Respect to all.

HEY, WHAT'S UP EVERYONE. I TOO GRADUATED FROM BISHOPHIGHSCHOOL. I GRADUATED 1997. I PLAYED

MIDDLE LINEBACKER AND WAS 1ST TEAM ALL-DISTRICT. I HAVE NOW GONE ON TO BIGGER AND BETTER THINGS LIKE PLAYING COLLEGE FOOTBALL AT HOWARD PAYNE UNIVERSITY.

I WAS #50 IN HIGH SCHOOL

AND I WISH I COULD STILL BE PLAYING THERE. THE ONLY THING I CAN SAY TO THE SENIORS OF '98 IS TO ENJOY

IT WHILE IT LASTS BECAUSE ONCE HIGH SCHOOL IS GONE... IT'S GONE. THANKS FOR THE TIME TO SAY HEY.

E-MAIL ME, I HAVE GOT NOTHING BUT TIME.

Hello. I graduated, as inconspicuously as the souls in the back of the classroom were known to, in 1995. It will be wonderful to see where your lives have gone, what failures and successes we might all have shared, on that thread of luminous hope with which we left those hallways. Until then, respect and love.

Greetings to all Bishop Alumni! Get out your calendars and add April 15, 2000 to your list of important dates! That is the date for the next "Bishop's Olde Tyme Faire." We are billing it as "A Millennium Homecoming." Would be nice if some of your classes would schedule reunions on that date. The faire will be at Bishop City Park and will last until dark. then, we are trying to find an organization to host a homecoming dance/reception so that you all can visit and have fun together. Let us know what you think. We will give you updates on plans as they unfold.

My younger sister, Laurie, passed this website along to me from Betty Sue Creech Perry just tonight. It brought tears to my eyes. I have wanted for a long time to hear about many of my classmates. We have all become who we are today from what we have learned, lived, and experienced in Bishop. In other words, we are the sum of all life's totals - the positives and negatives dealt us. I am so happy that Marvin brought light into that corner of Bishop. We owe alot to Bishop. We should support Bishop by joining their Chamber of Commerce.

I went to Bishop elem. from K-4th grade, then moved to East Texas and graduated in 1980. My mom taught at BHJH during that time, Lou Brown, my sister is Lisa (Bledsoe) Brown, class of 1981, and my cousins were the Donges's. I moved to Los Angeles to pursue an acting/modeling career in 1982 and have been doing that ever since. Would love to hear from the class of 1980 or anyone who remembers me and/or my family, and would like especially like any information about Mrs.

Elaine Bennet, who taught 4th grade in the early 70's. Even though we were only there a short while, I loved Bishop lots.
